

Method For The Extraction of Image Features Caused by Structure Light Using Image Reconstruction

Abstract of Disclosure

A method for generating, in a non-contact range finding and measurement system, a template structure representative of the surface of an observed object, and for utilizing the template structure to synthesize data points in corrupted regions of an image of the object.

09683371

[illegible]